What is kosher?

Kosher means that the food or ingredient satisfies the Jewish dietary laws.

Millions of Jews throughout the world only eat foods that are kosher and made of kosher ingredients.

Being certified as kosher provides the consumer with a guarantee that the product is indeed kosher.

The machinery and equipment used for manufacture can in some circumstances affect the kosher status of an otherwise kosher product.

The MK logo that we issue is the guarantee of kosher status that discriminating consumers look for.

Who we are

The Manchester Beth Din was established towards the end of the nineteenth century.

Over the last sixty years, its kosher certification department has grown dramatically, serving the needs of many prestigious multi-national companies in the UK, Europe and beyond, as well as smaller, local based manufacturers.

We pride ourselves in being user-friendly and on our ability to tailor our services to the needs of each individual client.

Become a successful player in the kosher market!

Why go kosher?

Kosher certification is the fastest growing food and beverage market, estimated at $25bn. And it's not just Jewish people who keep kosher! Many people with specific dietary needs, such as halal, vegetarian, gluten or lactose intolerant, choose to take advantage of kosher products.

You'll be one step ahead of your competitors, as you'll be able to market to both the mainstream and kosher market.

You'll demonstrate a level of transparency and integrity which MK prides itself on and which is globally recognized by the kosher consumer as trustworthy.

What's the cost?

There isn't a one-price-fits-all cost for kosher certification.

We are committed to ensuring that our charges enable you to succeed in the kosher world, rather than to make the venture non-viable!

We take the size and nature of your company into account, as well as the trading opportunities that you have for kosher products.

We take a long-term view and are happy to grow with you.

We look forward to working with you and adding you to an ever growing family of satisfied clients.

Our marketing team are at your disposal and will be delighted to answer all your questions.

We hope to hear from you soon and be able to assist you in what will be an exciting and hopefully lucrative venture.
